School Council

The children have elected their new School Council members and the children have already made a start by helping at our coffee afternoon.

Our Team Galena children voted for John and Surranne and Team Amethyst voted for Freddie, Ruby, Aksels and Martha. Congratulations to everyone and we are sure that you will do a great job!

MacMillan Coffee Afternoon

Thank you to everyone who came and supported our fundraising event for MacMillan and to everyone who donated cakes. We will share the grand total raised with you in the next newsletter.

Pumpkin Competition – Frosterley Inn

All the children have entered the Frosterley Inn Pumpkin Competition. Their work will be on display along with the pumpkins this Saturday. Pictures and prizes can be collected after 4PM. Any uncollected on the day will be sent to school and handed out to the children.

The Northern Echo

Our new starters will be featured in a special pull out section of The Northern Echo which will be on sale on Tuesday, 3rd October.

Village Hall Coffee Morning

Frosterley Helping Hands are running a coffee morning at the village hall on Saturday, 7th October from 10-12. As well as coffee and cakes, there will be stalls, a tombola and lots of games and activities for the children. Please do come along and support this event and encourage friends, family and neighbours to join us too.

Any donations for the cake stall, book sale or tombola would be gratefully received on the 6th in school or cakes on the day.

Taylor Shaw

Taylor Shaw are recruiting cooks and kitchen assistants throughout the county. Although there are no positions in Frosterley, if you are interested in applying for a position, Sofia has details in the school office.
